CITY EMPLOYEES GET 15 PERCENT PAY BOOST

White House Story To Be Reviewed

Mrs. Lorraine Kleinwachter of Berkeley, formerly of Washington, D. C., will review the story of "Starling of the White House," at the meeting of the Literary Hour at the County and City of Albany library, 1045 Solano Avenue, 1 p. m. on Monday, August 5, 1946, according to announcement made by Miss Shirley Preston, Librarian.

Dr. John Cull is chairman for the day, and will introduce Mrs. Kleinwachter. Edmund William Starling was the secret service guard at the White House for five presidents from Woodrow Wilson to Franklin D. Roosevelt, and the book covers his story as told to Thomas Sugrue.

Albany Youths Join Navy V-5

Two Albany men have signed up for the Navy's V-5 College Pilot Training program. They have been sworn in as apprentice seamen, and will enter college in the fall.

The local men are Robert Doyle Colvin, 705 Carmel Avenue, and Richard Charles Pickering, 650 Santa Fe.

City employees of Albany are under a new pay schedule today with a blanket increase of 15 per cent effective retroactively from July 1.

The increase became official when the City Council unanimously passed a pay increase resolution Monday night.

While falling slightly below the 18 per cent increase asked by members of the Police Department several weeks ago, officers today said they were satisfied with the modified increase.

A letter signed by all members of the Police Department and with the approval of Chief Stanley Williams, was presented to the City Council when that body was preparing to meet in budget conferences. At that time members of the Council flatly stated they would not consider an increase for the Police Department alone, but would take under serious consideration the question of increases for all city employees.

While city officials declared Albany is in poor condition financially, funds for the increase were derived principally from a $4,000 surplus saved during the last fiscal year and approximately $800 in additional taxes received from increased assessed real estate valuation from $9,316,225 the previous year to $9,857,525 the past fiscal year.

A proposed budget will be taken up in open session next week.

ALBANY SOCIETY NEWS NOTES

Geraldine M. Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Carroll, of 604 Key Route Boulevard, became the bride of Edward E. Coulon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil E. Coulon of 817 Carmel, in an afternoon ceremony, on July 21 at Northbrae Community Church. The Rev. Laurance Cross officiated at the candlelight service.

The bride wore a gown with satin top and sleeves with a net neck and train. The head piece was trimmed with pearls. She carried gardenias and carnations.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Lucille Lee, of Albany, the maid of honor Miss Dolores Gomes, also of Albany. They were in blue net with gowns similar in material to that of the bride. They wore blue hats of stiff net to match. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Olivia Taylor, of Richmond; Mrs. Mary Lou Leach, of Richmond; Mrs. Grace Murphy of Oakland and Miss Joyce Coulon of Berkeley were in pink net with matching hats and carried French bouquets of white carnations.

Best man was Niel Ebert, of Albany. Ushers were Ed. August and William Falk, Berkeley; Charles Gas-ton and James Smith, Richmond; and Robert Turpin of Albany.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents on Key Route boulevard.

The couple are now on a honeymoon to Lake Louise and Victoria. They expect to make their home in Albany on their return.

Barbara Anne Miller, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Walter George Miller of 957 Ventura Ave., Albany, became the bride of John Bayard Peri, son of Mr. John J. Peri, of Stockton, at the Northbrae Community Church of Berkeley.

Rev. Laurance L. Cross officiated at the four o'clock ceremony which was preceded by a solo by Mr. Stephen Lehmer, and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Lehmer. The church was decorated with coral and white gladioli, and white candles were lighted by four young altar boys at the beginning of the ceremony.

The bride wore a fitted gown of ivory satin with marquisette yoke trimmed with a pearl border, and having a medium length train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a pearl tiara. Her bouquet of white gladioli was centered with white butterfly orchids. Helen Kathryn Muller, a cousin and sorority sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a sleeveless dress of blue satin, of a style similar to the bride's gown, with long white gloves. Her yellow gladioli bouquet was matched by the flower bandeau in her hair. As bridesmaids, Phyllis Eleanor Peri, sister of the bridegroom, and Carol Lois Miller, sister of the bride, wore dresses made alike of the strawberry pink and Nile green respectively, with net overskirts. They also wore long white gloves and carried matching colonial type bouquets of mixed flowers. Pink and white flowers in bandeaus for their hair composed their headresses. The mother of the bride wore a black dressmaker suit with touches of green and gold.

With the bridegroom at the altar stood George Raab, Stockton, and the ushers, Neil Campion, Stockton, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom and Richard Miller, brother of the bride.

Following a reception at the church parlors the bride and groom drove to the high Sierras for a short honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of Albany High School and the University of California, where she was a member of Phi Mu sorority, also president; manager of Blue and Gold; president of Torch and Shield; member of Honor Students; and active in many other campus affairs. After her graduation she worked as a bacteriologist in the Hooper Research laboratories of the University. The groom is a graduate of Stockton High School and the University of California, where he was a member of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity. He is at present on terminal leave as Lieutenant (j.g.) U.S.N.R. In the early fall the young couple plan to attend the University of Wisconsin where they hope to work for advanced degrees in their special fields.

Some day, you will be able to complete a call to New York—or anywhere else in the country—almost as swiftly as a local call. For you will dial the number you want, and your call will be automatically routed across the country. Preliminary work on a nation-wide dialing system is already under way.

Uncannily accurate, switching equipment like this will do the job. Each section of the country will have a special three-digit code which you will simply dial before you dial the number you want. Between some neighboring cities here on the Coast long distance dialing will be a fact within the next few years.

This is only one of many long distance and local telephone projects included in our five-year four hundred million dollar expansion program. For it is our purpose to expand and improve service in every way we can . . . to make the telephone more useful and valuable to everyone.

An ever-improving telephone service at the least cost consistent with good wages and working conditions for our employees and a reasonable return to the thousands of people who have invested in the business.
